Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) is concerned with the protection of tangible and intangible property. It provides material awards and recognition to the inventors and contributors for their investment. Hence, it enhances motivation to disseminate scientific and technological information which in turn stimulates research and development for improvement of the quality of life.

The economic functioning of IPR can be thought of as minimization of transaction costs (search, bargain, and enforcement) and the optimization of time to fruition and avoidance of duplication. One can agree that the first best IPR policies are not only to minimize the transaction costs and conflict of interests but they provide incentives to invest on innovation which in turn maximizes wealth of a nation.

Designing of Online Organizing stuff:

The Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic has created significant challenges for the higher education in India and abroad. Educational institutions had to shut down, disrupting education performance, in compliance with government orders. So new approaches had to be sought to learning; however the centuries-old chalk-talk style of teaching was replaced into a technologically-driven mode for interactive courses. The assessment of the acceptance of virtual classes and identifying the various advantages challenges and reasons pertaining to e-learning encouraged.

Revisiting existing pedagogy and methods through the seamless integration of classroom training into e-learning modes to build a unified learning system needs to stress upon, to meet this we have designed the following

About the Workshop

Research is a difficult vocation in which the goal is to discover truths through scientific and systematic inquiry. The research's ultimate goal is to seek information, generate new knowledge, and propose practical solutions to the difficulties that the human race faces. In various academic disciplines, such as life Science, Education, Computer Science, Mathematics, Public Health, Library studies, Biological Studies and all science streams as research, aspirants involved in research activities are typically exposed to a course Research Methodology. Therefore, the course will be taught with different approach and perspectives. In this context, a One Day National Workshop On Research Methodology for Basic Sciences specifically designed to provide hands on training to the students enrolled for research program recently, and those who face certain challenges to kick-start the process of research systematically. This workshop is focused on the topics complementary to the content mentioned in the syllabus, leading to a good beginning towards success.

Objectives of National Workshop

- To train the student in their early stage of research, to carry out research activity using recent techniques in order to achieve high degree of productivity.
- To familiarize with powerful tools for literature survey and, management skills, ethical issues, etc.
- To provide the introduction to the key features of the readily available packages for computational studies and scientific writing.
- To give exposure to the software packages useful in preparing original visuals and illustrations.
- To aspire the scholars with basic skill sets required for quality research output such as effective communication, and presentation, etc.
- Topics covered : 1. Writing Research Paper, Choice of Journals and Assessing Impact Factor 2. How to prepare proposal to get foreign & Indian research scholarships.
